

We Faced it

Digitized by the Internet Archive

Dear Seniors,

Throughout our high school journey, both as a class and as individuals, we faced many challenges, experiences, and accomplishments. No matter the result, each of these encounters has shaped us into the 232 individuals we are today. We faced the fear of upperclassmen, difficult schedules that changed by the year, and most importantly, we faced the greatest high school experience.

Now, we're at an important stepping stone of our lives. Looking back, we see all that we have overcome throughout our high school years. And looking forward, we see the endless possibilities of what we may face in the future. As the Class of 2014, we are ready for whatever life may throw at us because

We Faced it Together!

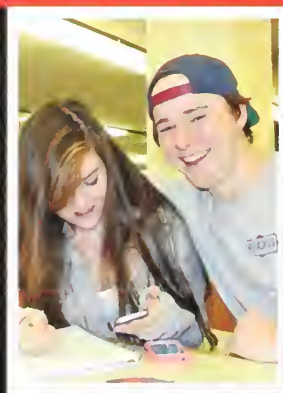

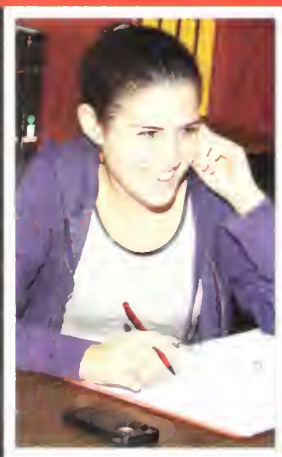

Best of Luck,

Your Editors-in-Chief,
Delaney Morris & Alicia Rosen

Plans of what our futures hold, foolish lies of growing old, it seems we're so invincible, the truth is so cold.

The thing is, being a senior is having responsibility. Being a senior is all about finding out who you are this year, and growing up and becoming a young adult. I can say so myself, hallelujah that this is my last year. I will miss it here, believe it or not, and I will miss some people. High school could be so much worse than it is now. Senior year should be different, but it's the most stressful year of all time.

Dear Ms. Mochi and Mr. Chandler,

Dedication barely defines the incomprehensible number of hours you have devoted to our class. Ms. Mochi, your caring heart, work ethic, and constant determination are only a few characteristics which truly define our success. Mr. Chandler, your positivity, good humor, and creativity in every project have benefitted all of us tremendously. You both have gone above and beyond what is expected of an advisor.

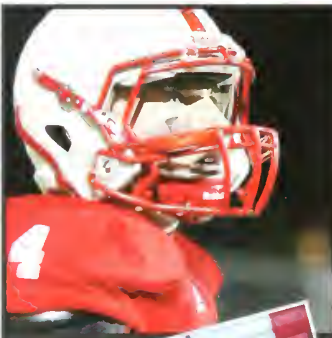

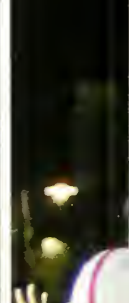

From small fundraisers to school-wide functions, with the two of you by our sides, our achievements have only grown over the years. Your innovation has led us to create new school events and improve old ones. Your pride in each student as an individual, and more importantly our class as a whole, has given us the confidence and support necessary for us to develop into the exceptional seniors we are today.

It is bittersweet that our time together is coming to an end, but the memories we have created will be cherished for years to come. As we boldly take the next steps into our future, we thank you for the incredible example you have set and the standard you expected; we have certainly learned from the invaluable life lessons you shared. We wish you nothing but the best.

*With Great Appreciation,
The Class of 2014

Delaney Morris, Vice President*

Maddie Konicek

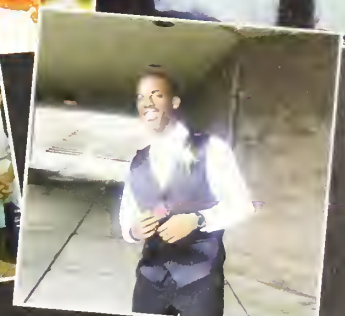

Congratulations little sister! I'm so proud of you and how much you've grown up. I can't wait to see how much more you accomplish. I'll always be here if you need me. Love, Ben --- I'm so happy that you carved your own path with music, drama and everything else you managed to schedule. All the hard work really paid off and I have no doubt you will continue to thrive in college & beyond. Love, Justin --- We are full of pride & awe at the lovely person you have become. Stay true to your strong sense of who you are & where you want to go in life. Your family will always be cheering you on. xoxo Mom & Dad xoxo

As I watch you grow I have many wishes for you. I wish you confidence to face all challenges, wisdom to choose your path, adventure & happiness to greet you. So don't look back because you're not going that way.

Love,
Mommie, Nyah and Papa

Haley Catherine Gorman

Haley-- From our little dimpled first born baby girl to the grown woman (still dimpled) you have become, you've brought us so much love and joy. You have amazing confidence coupled with a kind sweet soul-- attributes to be proud of, and ones that will help you succeed in life for sure. Congratulations on your MHS Class of 2014 graduation, and all of your hockey and life accomplishments! We look forward to your college experience next :)

We love you Haley!!

May your graduation from school be the beginning of a bright future for you. Wishing you the best college years ever, rewarding graduate school experience and an excellent career. Proud to be your parents, your sister, your grandparents and your cousins.

Alex & Cassidy

The most beautiful discovery true friends make, is that they can grow separately without growing apart. The time has come where we must let you fly on your own. Words can't possibly describe how incredibly proud we are of you.
